TRANSFORMING DOWNTOWN CLEVELAND INTO A VIBRANT DESTINATION FOR COMMUNITY CONNECTION AND ECONOMIC GROWTH THROUGH SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

Cleveland Cavaliers Chairman Dan Gilbert and his Family of Companies (FOC) is leading the continued revitalization of downtown Cleveland through sports, entertainment and real estate development. Since Dan and the Gilbert family acquired the Cleveland Cavaliers franchise in 2005, they have invested more than $4 billion into Northeast Ohio, including $1.1 billion dedicated to sports and entertainment infrastructure. This is reflected in a series of transformative initiatives that are reshaping Cleveland's landscape.

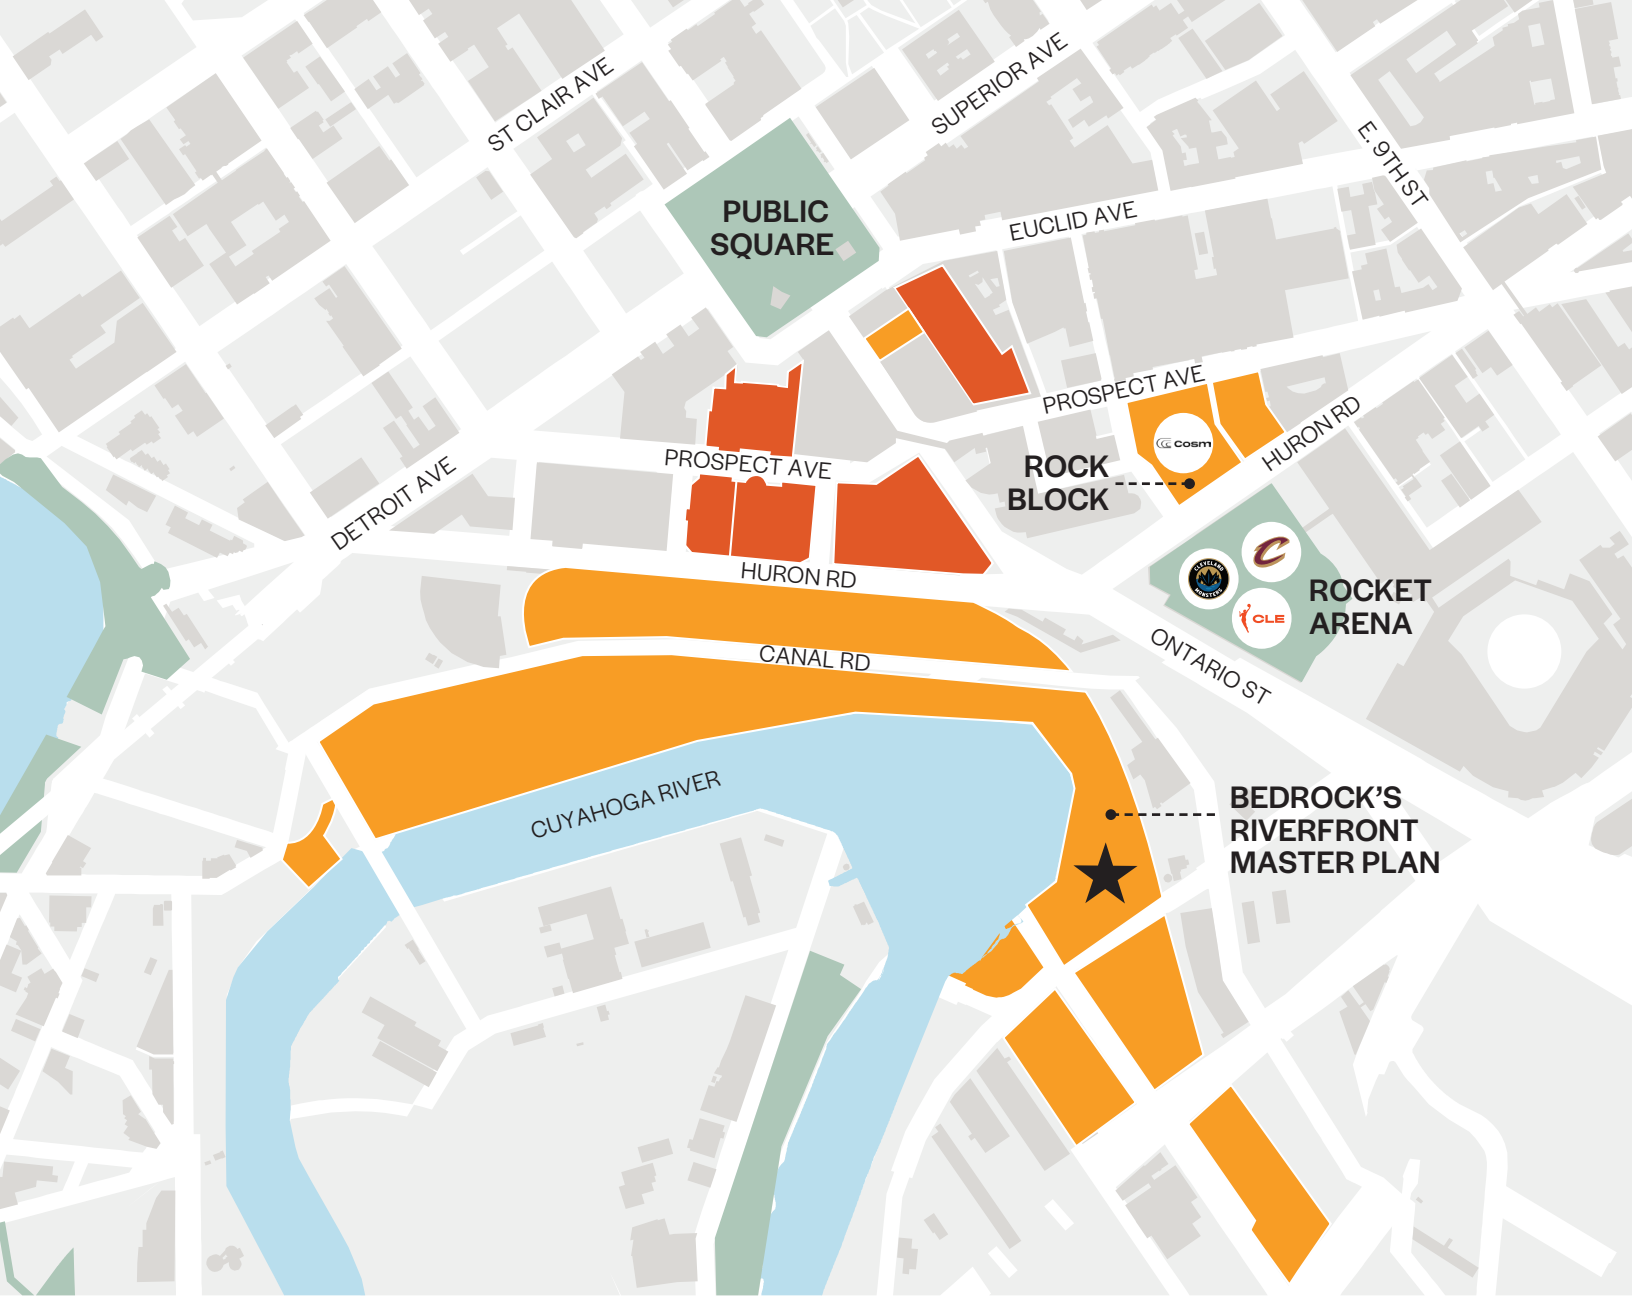
CLEVELAND CLINIC GLOBAL PEAK PERFORMANCE CENTER

The Cleveland Clinic Global Peak Performance Center will set new standards for sports medicine and human performance through innovation, health and community engagement in downtown Cleveland. As the new practice facility for the Cleveland Cavaliers and the first vertical development of Bedrock's 'The Riverfront,' the facility will be one of the world's largest and most advanced training and performance complexes, further elevating Northeast Ohio as a premier destination for elite athletic talent. Scheduled to open in the spring of 2027, the center will serve as an anchor for the city's riverfront revitalization, reflecting the Cavaliers' commitment to excellence and establishing them as one of the world's most forward-thinking sports franchises. Bringing together a unique hub of resources, the performance center will help the team retain and attract top talent, extend players' careers and support athletes in becoming their best selves.

On October 14, 2024, the Cleveland Cavaliers, Cleveland Clinic and Bedrock celebrated the groundbreaking of the Cavaliers' new practice facility. The milestone signified the launch of a new era for Cleveland's riverfront, setting in motion the development of the 210,000-square-foot, Populous-designed performance center. The event also marked a historic moment for the Cavaliers and Cleveland Clinic as the organizations announced a 25-year extension of their long-standing partnership that began in 1993. The extension reflects the Cavaliers and Cleveland Clinic's shared commitment to invest in and strengthen Cleveland's position as a leader in both healthcare and sports excellence. The agreement extension, which begins during the 2026-27 season, solidifies the partnership as one of the longest continuous relationships between a professional sports organization and a medical provider.

On July 8, 2025, nearly nine months after breaking ground, project members, tradespeople, community leaders and public officials gathered to celebrate the topping off of the performance center and the efforts of the tradespeople to reach the construction milestone. The event celebrated the placement of the final steel beam—symbolizing the completion of the building's structural frame and the project's steady progress to date.

In addition to serving as the practice facility for the Cavaliers, the Cleveland Clinic Global Peak Performance Center will provide comprehensive care for the general public and athletes of all sports and levels, offering multidisciplinary team services in cardiology, neurology, nutrition, psychology and genetics.



THE RIVERFRONT

In September 2021, Bedrock and the City of Cleveland unveiled a comprehensive proposal to transform the Cuyahoga riverfront, creating stronger connections between downtown Cleveland and its residents and visitors through a vision centered on sustainability, equity and accessibility. The strategy lays the foundation for a historic development effort, positioning the area as a "15-minute, 18-hour city" along the river.

The Riverfront Cleveland is a transformational, mixed-use development reimagining 35 acres of underutilized land and the historic Tower City Center along the Cuyahoga River. Anchored by the Cleveland Clinic Global Peak Performance Center, the 3.5-million-square-foot master plan will feature 12 acres of publicly accessible space, including parks, plazas, trails, a 3,000-foot riverwalk and open waterfront areas designed to host year-round activities. The vision will be implemented in phases over the next 15 to 20 years.

The project serves as a cornerstone of Mayor Justin Bibb's Shore-to-Core-to-Shore (SCS) initiative, which connects Cleveland's downtown business district and neighborhoods to its two waterfronts: the Cuyahoga River and Lake Erie. Conceived as a unifying and vibrant hub, this central corridor aims to enhance the daily commuter experience while creating new opportunities for commerce, community and connection, with a strong emphasis on improving transit and mobility.

ROCK BLOCK

Situated at the intersection of East 4th Street, Prospect Avenue, and Huron Road, Bedrock's Rock Block is a mixed-use development site set to offer a range of retail, hospitality and parking options to amplify and support the momentum of Cleveland's urban core. Rock Block will be anchored by Cosm Cleveland, the leading immersive technology, media and entertainment company. Rock Block will join a number of entertainment, sports, retail and dining amenities in downtown's Gateway District, headlined by the Rock Entertainment Group-operated Rocket Arena.

COSM CLEVELAND

Cosm is a leading experiential media and immersive technology company that redefines how people experience entertainment, sports, science and education. By combining state-of-the-art display technology, advanced production software and a vast ecosystem of immersive content, Cosm creates "Shared Reality" venues—unique spaces that merge the energy of a live crowd with stadium-like visuals, transporting audiences to the center of the action, no matter where they are physically located.

In July 2025, Rock Entertainment Group, Bedrock and Cosm announced that the leading immersive technology, media and entertainment company will open its fifth location nationwide in Cleveland, Ohio.

Cosm Cleveland will anchor Rock Block in downtown Cleveland. Through shared reality, Cosm connects people and brings them together by merging a stadium-like atmosphere with the energy of the crowd, elevated food and beverage options, and state-of-the-art visuals, transporting them to the best seat in the house, every time.

Expanding on the foundational design of its first four venues, Cosm Cleveland will include a 12K+ LED dome with a complementary hi-resolution, wall-to-wall LED display, while still highlighting unique characteristics that reflect Cleveland's vibrant community. The venue will host a slate of live sports offerings, experiential cinema, immersive art experiences and additional live entertainment. Cosm Cleveland will join a number of entertainment, sports, retail and dining amenities in downtown's Gateway District, Rocket Arena.

Cosm Cleveland is expected to break ground in early 2026 with an expected open date of 2027.

Rocket Arena

Rocket Arena is Northeast Ohio's premier sports and entertainment facility. The 152,790 square foot institution is home to the Cleveland Cavaliers, Cleveland Monsters, the annual Men's and Women's MAC Basketball Tournament and beginning in 2028 will be the permanent residence of the Cleveland WNBA expansion team. 1,400 private events and more than 175 ticketed events are hosted here each year, from concerts to comedy shows to once-in-a-lifetime events. Dan Gilbert is the Chairman of the Cleveland Cavaliers and the Founder and Chairman of Rocket (NYSE: RKT), which includes Rocket Mortgage, Redfin, Rocket Money and a family of FinTech businesses that are helping people realize the dream of homeownership.

In Cleveland, Dan is not just an owner, he is a builder. Under his leadership, the Cavaliers delivered the city its first major sports championship in over 50 years. The impact goes beyond the hardwood. The renovation of Rocket Arena, a $185 million investment, was a statement: downtown Cleveland is worth betting on. Since opening, the Rocket Arena has generated more than $6.6 billion in total economic impact, becoming a civic hub that fuels jobs, tourism and pride.

Dan believes in operating businesses For More Than Profit, the idea that business should serve people and community, not just shareholders. The Cavaliers organization reflects that mission, from youth outreach programs and education initiatives to the Cleveland Clinic Global Peak Performance Center, a first-of-its-kind partnership bringing elite sports medicine, research and innovation to the region. It is a bridge between clinical care, professional sports and Cleveland's economic growth.

He is the founder of Bedrock, the real estate platform that has helped shape urban growth in both Detroit and Cleveland. With more than $7.5 billion invested in these cities' downtown cores, Dan's vision is long-term: transform iconic skylines, create jobs and attract talent. In Cleveland, that vision includes the future of the Cuyahoga Riverfront, a generational development in partnership with the City and County that will reshape how people live, work and connect in the heart of downtown.

Dan is also the founder of Detroit Venture Partners, which backs tech startups across the region, and a co-founder of StockX, a Detroit-born company now valued in the billions with a global footprint.

After surviving a major stroke in 2019 and losing his son Nick to a rare genetic disease in 2023, Dan Gilbert channeled his energy and resources into transforming healthcare access through the Gilbert Family Foundation. In Cleveland, that commitment includes a major investment in housing stability via the Cleveland Eviction Defense Fund, which helps families remain in their homes and avoid displacement. In Detroit, the Foundation made a landmark $375 million gift to Henry Ford Health to establish the Shirley Ryan AbilityLab for stroke rehabilitation and the Nick Gilbert Neurofibromatosis Research Institute, advancing treatment and research for families facing similar challenges.

A native of Michigan, Dan earned his undergraduate degree from Michigan State University and his law degree from Wayne State University in Detroit.

For Dan Gilbert, owning the Cavaliers is about much more than basketball. It is about building something that lasts.

Koby Altman is the driving force behind the Cleveland Cavaliers' resurgence, having been named President of Basketball Operations in January 2022. A bold decision-maker and innovative leader, he orchestrates every element of the franchise's basketball vision, from roster construction and scouting to player development and personnel moves, while also guiding the Cavaliers' NBA G League affiliate, the Cleveland Charge. More than just managing logistics, Altman works hand in hand with players, coaches, and staff to create a winning culture built to thrive on and off the court.

Altman's rise as a front office leader began when he became the Cavaliers' 11th general manager on July 24, 2017. Under his guidance, he has reshaped the organization, executing 28 trades—including three in-season deals that led to Cleveland's fourth straight trip to the NBA Finals in 2018. Since then, his roster-building vision has netted 21 draft picks and set the stage for a new golden era of Cavs basketball.

Through the draft, Altman secured cornerstone players like Darius Garland (No. 5 in 2019) and Evan Mobley (No. 3 in 2021). Garland has blossomed into one of the league's premier guards, a two-time All-Star who signed a franchise extension in 2022. Mobley quickly followed suit, storming into elite territory with an All-Star nod, All-NBA Second Team recognition, and the Cavaliers' first-ever Defensive Player of the Year honor in the 2024-25 season.

Altman's knack for transformative trades has only elevated the team further. He landed Jarrett Allen at age 22, who became an All-Star in 2022 and set a franchise single-season record with a staggering .706 field goal percentage this past season. In September 2022, Altman swung a blockbuster trade to acquire perennial All-Star Donovan Mitchell. Since joining the Cavaliers, Mitchell has been selected to the All-Star Game every season, capped by an All-NBA First Team honor in 2024-25. He continues to cement his place in team history with the second-highest career scoring average ever by a Cavalier at 26.2 points per game.

Recognized as a three-time finalist for the NBA Executive of the Year award (2021-22, 2022-23, 2024-25), Altman has assembled a roster that fueled four straight seasons of improved regular-season records (2019–2023), three consecutive playoff appearances (2023–2025), and a 64-win campaign in 2024-25—the second-best mark in team history. To cement Cleveland's future, he signed Mitchell, Mobley, and Allen to long-term extensions last summer while bringing in head coach Kenny Atkinson, who validated the hire by winning NBA Coach of the Year in his first season.

Before taking the reins as GM, Altman spent five years climbing the Cavaliers' front office ladder, earning a promotion to assistant general manager in 2016. Along the way, he played a pivotal role in four consecutive NBA Finals runs (2015–2018), including the franchise's unforgettable 2016 championship. His journey with the Cavaliers began in 2012 as pro personnel manager, and just a year later he rose to director of pro player personnel.

The 43-year-old has a wealth of international experience with USA Basketball, having managed the Under-17 team to its first gold medal at the inaugural 2010 FIBA U17 World Championship and helped the Under-19 team win gold at the FIBA World Championship in New Zealand the previous year, the country's first in almost 20 years. Notably, the 2010 U17 team included future NBA Top 10 draft picks.

Before joining Cleveland, Altman served two seasons as an assistant coach at Columbia University, working under Head Coach Kyle Smith, who introduced the analytics-driven "Nerdball" style of play. Prior to that, he was a graduate assistant at Southern Illinois and earned his master's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts, where he also coached at nearby Amherst College under Naismith Hall of Fame Coach Dave Hixon.

A Brooklyn, New York native, Altman played collegiately at Middlebury College, where he was a three-year starter at point guard and later named to the college's Board of Trustees. He also serves on the National Board of Directors for the Posse Foundation, which identifies, recruits and trains individuals with extraordinary leadership potential, providing full-tuition leadership scholarships through Posse's partner colleges and universities. Altman most recently spearheaded two major initiatives for the Cavaliers Basketball Ecosystem: planning and developing the now under construction Cleveland Clinic Global Peak Performance Center—a new, state-of-the-art, 200,000 sq. ft. team headquarters downtown—and supporting Cleveland's upcoming WNBA franchise, which secured its expansion bid for 2028.

REG encompasses the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers, the Cleveland WNBA 2028 Expansion Team, the AHL's Cleveland Monsters, the NBA G League's Cleveland Charge, Rock Entertainment Sports Network (RESN) and the PGA Tour's Rocket Classic (Detroit). REG also manages operations of key venues such as Cleveland Clinic Courts and Rocket Arena, the epicenter of sports and entertainment in Northeast Ohio and the largest driver of economic impact in Cuyahoga County.

Barlage joined the Cavaliers in 2017 as President of Business Operations, overseeing the 2019-2020 transformation and the recent 30th anniversary of Rocket Arena. In 2021, he was named CEO of the Cavaliers and REG. Before joining the Cavaliers, Barlage served as the Senior Vice President and Chief Sales Officer for the Phoenix Suns during the 2013-14 season, leading their premium and ticket sales and marketing endeavors. Earlier, Barlage spent five seasons with the Cavaliers, culminating in his role as Vice President of Sales and Service before his move to Phoenix. The Cavaliers have forged community partnerships across all levels, from local neighborhoods to international communities, amplifying their impact far beyond Northeast Ohio. This expansive reach has translated into tangible results: over $48 million invested in community initiatives and more than 52,000 volunteer hours contributed by team members. REG's support extends to organizations tackling critical issues such as education, food security, violence prevention and youth development.

Barlage has also led REG in fueling Cleveland's future through transformative city-building investments. These include enhancing the riverfront with the Cleveland Clinic Global Peak Performance Center - a world-class hub for athletic training and health opening in 2027 - anchoring the new Rock Block entertainment district with Cosm's immersive shared-reality experience and breathing new life into downtown with the revitalization of the historic Cleveland Public Hall. Together, these projects underscore REG's role in shaping Cleveland's growth and cultural vibrancy, using sports and entertainment as powerful drivers of urban renewal.

With a deep commitment to community and city growth, Barlage extends his leadership beyond the organization through service on several influential boards. Barlage is a member of Cosm's board, a global technology company that creates immersive "shared reality" entertainment. He also serves esteemed nonprofit institutions such as the Greater Cleveland Sports Commission, Cleveland Leadership Center, Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Cleveland Clinic Pediatrics Leadership Council, Greater Cleveland Partnership and Hathaway Brown School.

PLAYOFF MOMENTS

A Miracle

The first playoff series in franchise history was a matchup against the Washington Bullets in 1976. The seven-game series was highlighted by three last-second game-winning shots by the Cavaliers, who went on to win 4-3 in the series that became known as the "Miracle of Richfield."

To The Eastern Conference Finals

The Cavaliers advanced to their first Conference Finals since 1976 after defeating the Boston Celtics 4-3 in the 1992 NBA Playoffs. In Game 7 of their semifinals win, six players scored in double figures for the Cavs, who shot .590 from the field and finished with a franchise postseason-record 42 assists on 49 baskets.

What a Show

In Game 5 of the 2007 Eastern Conference Finals, one of the greatest playoff performances in NBA history was on display. In the last 16 minutes of a double-overtime 109-107 win, LeBron James scored 29 of Cleveland's 30 points, including the team's final 25 points. The Cavs would go on to close out the series in Game 6 in Cleveland and advance to their first-ever NBA Finals.

Finals in The Land

The Cavaliers played their first NBA Finals game in Cleveland on June 12, 2007 when they faced off against the San Antonio Spurs. This would be the first of five NBA Finals appearances for the Cavaliers.

41 Points Apiece

Trailing 3-1 in the 2016 NBA Finals, the Cavs avoided elimination by defeating the Golden State Warriors, 112-97, in Game 5. Kyrie Irving (41 pts, 17-24 FG, 5-7 3FG, 6 asts) and LeBron James (41 pts, 16-30 FG, 4-8 3FG, 16 rebs, 7 asts, 3 stls, 3 blks) came up huge as they became the first teammates in NBA Finals history to score 40 points apiece. The win was an historical moment for Cleveland, who ended up winning the next two games en route to their first-ever NBA championship.

2018-19

Season Highlights

Final Record: 19-63 Finished: 5th Place in Division Head Coach: Tyronn Lue 0-6 Larry Drew 19-57

Cleveland suited up a franchise-record 27 different players during the 2018-19 season, which was just shy of the NBA record held by the Memphis Grizzlies (28 players in 2018-19 and 2015-16). The Cavs also had an NBA-high 32 different starting lineups. Larry Drew took over the helm after the Cavaliers released Head Coach Tyronn Lue on Oct. 28. Collin Sexton earned All-Rookie Second Team honors after playing in all 82 contests and ranking in the Top 5 among rookies in double-digit scoring games (73), FT% (1st, .839), games played (tied-1st, 82), 3FG% (2nd, .402), MPG (2nd, 31.8), PPG (3rd, 16.7), FG% (4th, .430) and APG (5th, 3.0). He also became just the third rookie in league history to average at least 16.0 PPG, while shooting .400 from beyond the arc and .800 from the free throw line (Larry Bird in 1979-80 and Stephen Curry in 2009-10). Jordan Clarkson scored in double figures 72 times, which ended up being the most among all NBA bench players in 2018-19. His 1,364 points was also the highest among reserves in franchise history, surpassing Campy Russell (1,210 PTS in 1975-76). The Cavs' bench set a franchise-record with 42.6 points per game.

J.B. Bickerstaff took over duties as head coach on Feb. 19. After taking over the helm, Bickerstaff led the Cavs to a 5-6 (.455) record, as the team averaged 111.4 points and 26.4 assists (eighth-best in NBA) over that span. Darius Garland was the only NBA rookie in 2019-20 with at least 700 points, 225 assists and 100 three-pointers, while Kevin Porter Jr. was the lone rookie averaging at least 10.0 points, 3.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists in under 24.0 minutes in 2019-20. Veterans Kevin Love (17.6 PPG, 9.8 RPG) and Tristan Thompson (12.0 PPG, 10.1 RPG) both had strong seasons in 2019-20. On Feb. 6, the Cavaliers acquired two-time NBA All-Star Andre Drummond, who went on to average a career-high 17.7 points, an NBA-leading 15.2 rebounds, a career-high 1.91 steals and 1.63 blocks in 33.0 minutes per game.

Season Highlights

Final Record: 51-31 Finished: 2nd Place in Division Head Coach: J.B. Bickerstaff

The Cavaliers made their first playoff appearance in five years as they finished the regular season tied for the 5th-best record in the NBA at 51-31 (31-10 at home), their best overall record and home mark since 2016-17 (51-31 overall and 31-10 at home). Cleveland was one of only three NBA teams to rank in the Top 10 in the NBA in both offensive and defensive rating, and led NBA in defensive rating (109.9), opponent points per game (106.9), wins by 10+ points (33) and wins by 20+ points (12, tied). Koby Altman was the runner-up for the NBA's Executive of the Year award, acquiring NBA All-Star Donovan Mitchell in a trade prior to the season. Mitchell went on to become a 2023 NBA All-Star starter, just the fourth Cavalier ever to accomplish that feat, and ended the campaign averaging a career-high 28.3 points (seventh-best in NBA), which was the highest scoring average by a Cavalier since LeBron James in 2009-10. Mitchell also set franchise single season records in three-pointers made (245) and 40-point games (13), including his franchise-record 71-point performance in a win over Chicago on Jan. 2. Evan Mobley, who averaged career highs in points (16.2), rebounds (9.0), assists (2.8), minutes (34.4) and field goal percentage (.554, 17th-best in NBA), to go along with 1.51 blocks (ninth-best in NBA), was an NBA All-Defensive First Team selection and Defensive Player of the Year finalist. Mobley also participated in Rising Stars at NBA All-Star Weekend in Salt Lake City, Utah, helping Team Joakim reach the tournament Final. Darius Garland became the first player in Cavaliers history to finish a season with at least 20.0 points, 7.0 assists and a .400 three-point percentage or better.

Season Highlights

Final Record: 48-34 Finished: 2nd Place in Division Head Coach: J.B. Bickerstaff

Cleveland finished the 2023-24 regular season as the fourth seed in the Eastern Conference at 48-34 and advanced to the Eastern Conference Semifinals for the first time since 2018. From Jan. 3 to Feb. 10, the Cavs posted an NBA-best 17-1 record, tying their most wins over any 18-game span in franchise history. Cleveland's 112.6 points per game average was their second-highest in team history and their 1,108 three-pointers made was a franchise record. Additionally, the Cavs had six players average at least 12.0 points for just the second time ever (Donovan Mitchell 26.6, Darius Garland 18.0, Jarrett Allen 16.5, Evan Mobley 15.7, Caris LeVert 14.0 and Max Strus 12.2). Mitchell was named an All-Star for the fifth year in a row, averaging 26.6 points, to go along with career highs in assists (6.1), rebounds (5.1) and steals (1.84), and became only the second player in Cavs history to record at least 25.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists in a single season. Jarrett Allen finished the season averaging a career-high 16.5 points on .634 shooting (4th-best in the NBA), 10.5 rebounds (11th in the NBA), a career-high 2.7 assists and 1.05 blocks, and added a career-high 42 double-doubles, including a franchise-mark 16 straight double-doubles from Dec. 23 to Jan. 31 Evan Mobley averaged a near double-double with 15.7 points on .580 shooting (11th in the NBA), a career-high 9.4 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 1.44 blocks. Darius Garland finished the season with 18.0 points, 6.5 assists and 1.30 steals. Off the bench, Caris LeVert was the only NBA reserve to average at least 13.0 points, 3.0 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 1.0 steal.

THE HISTORY OF NBA ALL-STAR IN THE LAND

The 1981 NBA ALL-STAR GAME was played February 1, 1981, at the Richfield Coliseum in Richfield, Ohio. This was the first All-Star game hosted by Cleveland and the 35th National Basketball Association Season. 20,239 fans packed into the arena as the East edged the West, 123-120, with Nate "Tiny" Archibald (nine points, nine assists) taking home MVP honors. Mike Mitchell represented the Cavaliers in the All-Star Game and recorded 14 points in the contest.

Cleveland hosted the 1997 NBA ALL-STAR GAME, when the league celebrated its 50th anniversary season. The NBA's 50 Greatest Players were honored during a ceremony at halftime of the All-Star Game. The 1997 NBA All-Star Game featured a historic performance from Charlotte Hornets forward Glen Rice, who set an All-Star record for points in a quarter with 20 in the third period and finished with 26 points to lead the Eastern Conference past the Western Conference 132-120, earning MVP honors. Michael Jordan (14 points, 11 rebounds, 11 assists) became the first player in All-Star Game history to notch a triple-double. Terrell Brandon was the lone All-Star for Cleveland, tallying 10 points and eight assists for the East in front of 20,562 fans.

Also at NBA All-Star 1997, Los Angeles Lakers rookie guard Kobe Bryant won the Slam Dunk Contest, Chicago Bulls guard Steve Kerr triumphed in the Three-Point Contest and Philadelphia 76ers rookie guard Allen Iverson was named MVP of Rising Stars.

The 2022 NBA ALL-STAR GAME was played on Feb. 20, 2022 at Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse, during the NBA's 75th anniversary season. The NBA's 75th Anniversary Team was honored with a touching tribute during halftime. Golden State's Stephen Curry (50 points) took home MVP honors for Team LeBron, who defeated Team Durant 163-160. The Cavs had two All-Stars in the game in Jarrett Allen (10 points, nine rebounds, two blocks) and Darius Garland (13 points, three assists, two steals), as both stars played for Team LeBron.

The 2022 NBA All-Star Weekend in Cleveland tipped off with Cavaliers' Evan Mobley and Isaac Okoro helping Team Barry win the Rising Stars championship. On All-Star Saturday Night, TEAM CAVS (Allen, Garland, Mobley) won first place in the Skills Challenge, marking the first time in franchise history any Cavaliers player had won the event. Karl-Anthony Towns won the Three-Point Contest and Obi Toppin was victorious in the Slam Dunk Contest.

NBA ALL-STAR 2025 MARKED JUST THE FOURTH TIME IN FRANCHISE HISTORY THAT THE CAVALIERS HAD THREE NBA ALL-STAR SELECTIONS (1989, 1993, 2017).

Nate Thurmond (No. 42)
Height: 6-11 Weight: 235
Position: Center
Jersey Retired: 112/18/1977

Long before Nate Thurmond had arrived to the Cleveland Cavaliers on Nov .27, 1975 and led the five-year old franchise to its first playoff appearance, he held a warm spot in the hearts of Northeast Ohioans .

Born Nathaniel Thurmond on July 25, 1941 in Akron, Ohio, the 6-foot-11 center starred at Akron's Central Hower High School before attending Bowling Green State University .As a Falcon, Thurmond averaged 17 8 points and 17 0 rebounds over three varsity seasons, earning All-American honors as a senior in 1963 .

Drafted by the San Francisco Warriors with the third overall pick in the 1963 NBA Draft, Thurmond learned behind Wilt Chamberlain for a full season before the Warriors traded Chamberlain midway through the following season, clearing room for Thurmond to flourish .A dominant defensive player whom Chamberlain and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar both credited as their toughest defender, Thurmond was named to the NBA All-Defensive First or Second-Team on five occasions (1969, '71-74) and was honored as an NBA All-Star seven times (1965-68, '70, '73-74) .Thurmond is also acknowledged in NBA history as the first player to ever record a quadruple-double .

Thurmond was traded to the Chicago Bulls after 11 seasons as a Warrior and two trips to the NBA Finals (1964 and 1967) .Thurmond spent two seasons in Chicago before the Cavaliers acquired the center for Steve Patterson and Eric Fernsten .

Home in Ohio again, Thurmond led the 1975-76 Cavaliers team that started 6-11 without him to a 43-22 finish and the playoffs, helping give birth to the season better known as "the Miracle of Richfield" .

The following season would be Thurmond's last as he retired at the end of the season .He was inducted in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1984 and named to the NBA 50th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1996 .

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on Dec .18, 1977 .

Bobby "Bingo" Smith (No. 7)
Height: 6-6 Weight: 195
Position: Small Forward
Jersey Retired: 12/4/79

On May 11, 1970, the Cleveland Cavaliers drafted 11 players in the 1970 Expansion Draft .Two never put on a Cavaliers uniform .Of the remaining nine, all but one played four seasons or less in Cleveland .

The one, Bobby Smith, played 10 seasons and over 700 games with the Cavaliers, helping to shape and mold the young expansion team into playoff contenders .

Better known as "Bingo", Smith spent his rookie season with the San Diego Rockets before being selected by the Cavaliers in the Expansion Draft .Smith and his patented 'rainbow jumper' became bright spots through Cleveland's early years as the team quickly improved .With each passing season, the versatile small forward remained a constant and consistent performer, even leading the 1974-75 Cavaliers that finished 40-42 and one game out of the playoffs in scoring at 15 9 points per game .

The following season, Cleveland made the playoffs for the first time and Smith added a bit of magic to the season that has become known as the "Miracle of Richfield" .With home-court advantage already lost and the Cavaliers trailing in their first round series against the favored Washington Bullets, 0-1, Smith and his rainbow jumpers helped Cleveland find a pot of gold .In Washington for Game 2, Smith scored a team-leading 17 points and made the game-winning shot with just seconds remaining to secure the 80-79 victory .The win served as the first playoff victory for the franchise and propelled the Cavaliers past the Bullets and into the Eastern Conference Finals against Boston where they eventually fell in six games .

Smith played four more seasons in Cleveland, helping guide the Cavaliers to the playoffs two more times before finishing his career with the San Diego Clippers for one season .

"Bingo" ranks in the top 10 all-time in franchise history in six different categories: games played (4th), field goals made (3rd), field goals attempted (3rd), minutes played (5th) and points scored (6th) .

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on Dec .4, 1979 .

Austin Carr (No. 34)
Height: 6-4 Weight: 200
Position: Shooting Guard
Jersey Retired:1/3/81

Going into their second season as a franchise, the Cleveland Cavaliers held the No .1 overall pick in the 1971 NBA Draft and aimed to get an impact player .With their pick, the Cavaliers selected Austin Carr, a high-scoring shooting guard and two-time All-American at Notre Dame .

Carr proved not only to be the impact player the Cavaliers sought, but much more .

As a rookie, Carr immediately became the top option on offense, averaging 21 2 points and becoming the first Cavalier named to the All-NBA Rookie Team .Known as "A C ." by teammates and fans alike, the sweet-shooting fan favorite averaged 20 or more points the following two seasons, highlighted by Carr's selection as an All-Star in 1974 .

Just as Carr began to reach elite status in the NBA, misfortune struck . On Dec .5, 1974, Carr suffered a knee injury that eventually cut short his season and forced him to undergo surgery .

Carr persevered and returned strong, playing in all 82 games in three of the following four seasons .Even after the injury, Carr's impact as a scorer and leader remained present as he never averaged less than double-digits in his career and led the Cavaliers to the playoffs on three occasions during his nine-year tenure in Cleveland .

After the 1979-80 season, Carr's final with the Cavaliers, he won the Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award for his substantial contributions to the Cleveland community .

Carr is placed second in field goals made and attempted and ranks fourth in points scored among all players to don a Cavaliers uniform .He also ranks among the franchise leaders in free throws made (6th) and attempted (5th) and minutes played (6th) .

For his efforts on and off the floor, Carr was selected by 32 members of the media in Northeast Ohio to the Cavaliers' All-Time Starting Five during the Cavaliers 30th Anniversary season of 1999-2000 .

He remains deeply involved in the organization serving as director of community and business development as well as the full-time analyst for the Cavaliers Television Network .

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on Jan .3, 1981 .

Larry Nance (No. 22)
Height: 6-10 Weight: 235
Position: Power Forward
Jersey Retired on 1/30/95

Undoubtedly, the 1986 NBA Draft that landed the Cavaliers Brad Daugherty, Ron Harper and Mark Price brought a youthful injection of much-needed talent and skilled players to an evolving franchise .The acquisition of the three college stars instantly made the Cavaliers good .

But perhaps it was the final acquisition of power forward Larry Nance that made the Cavaliers go from good to great and led to one of the most successful eras in team history .On Feb .25, 1988, Cleveland sent Kevin Johnson, Mark West, Tyrone Corbin, a first-round draft choice in 1988 and two second-round picks to Phoenix in exchange for Nance, Mike Sanders and Detroit's first-round pick in 1988 .

Known as "Leapin' Larry" for the dunking prowess that made him the first-ever Slam Dunk Champion in 1984 and his strong shot-blocking skills, Nance brought his high-flying, power game and six years of experience to a team in desperate need of a veteran .

Nance filled the void remarkably, helping the Cavaliers make the playoffs by winning 11 of their final 13 games that season .

The following season was one of the best in franchise history as the Cavaliers won a then franchise-best 57 games (which was later tied by the 1991-92 team that Nance also starred on) and went 37-4 at home .Nance was named an NBA All-Star for the first of two times in 1989 and was joined on the squad by Daugherty, Price and Head Coach Lenny Wilkens .

Spearheaded by the trio of Nance, Daugherty and Price, the Cavaliers made the playoffs in each season the group played together besides 1990-91, where Price was limited to just 16 games after tearing his ACL .

A tenacious defender, Nance is one of only three players in franchise history to be named to the All-Defensive First Team (1988-89) and the only Cavalier to make the All-Defensive teams three times (1988-89, 91-92 and 92-93) .

He ranks among the Cavaliers all-time leaders in blocked shots (3rd), field goal percentage (4th), rebounds (9th), field goals made (9th), minutes played (10th) and free throws made (11th) .

Nance was named to the Cavaliers' All-Time Starting Five by 32 members of the Northeast Ohio media during the Cavaliers 30th Anniversary season .

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on Jan .30, 1995 .

Brad Daugherty (No. 43)
Height: 7-0 Weight: 263
Position: Center
Jersey Retired on 3/1/97

10,389 points scored. 5,227 rebounds grabbed. 2,741 free throws made. 3,670 free throws attempted. Five all-star appearances made.

Those numbers represent the various statistics that Brad Daugherty led the Cavaliers franchise in at the time of his retirement and why he is one of the greatest players in franchise history.

The number one overall draft pick of the 1986 NBA Draft, the 7-foot center was pivotal along with then-fellow rookies Ron Harper, John Williams and Mark Price in re-energizing and improving the franchise. The multi-skilled Daugherty was named to the All-Rookie Team and quickly joined elite status as an NBA center.

Daugherty played in the first of five All-Star games in 1988 and then led the Cavaliers to the playoffs for the first time in three seasons that April. The following season Daugherty and the Cavaliers won a then franchise-record 57 games, including going 37-4 at home.

After an injury-plagued 1989-90 season in which Daugherty missed the first 41 games, he returned to All-Star status. He became the first and remains the only player in franchise history to average 20 or more points and 10 or more rebounds in the same season. He reached that feat in three consecutive seasons (1990-93), being named an All-Star in the process each of those years.

In the 1992 NBA Playoffs, Daugherty cemented his place as one of the best in the league by leading the Cavaliers to the Eastern Conference Finals. He averaged 21.5 points on .528 field goal shooting, 10.2 rebounds, 3.4 assists and 1.0 block in 40.4 minutes per game during the 17-game run. In the first round against New Jersey, he scored a then Cavalier playoff-record 40 points on April 23.

Cleveland made the playoffs in all but two of the seasons Daugherty played and he led the Cavaliers in scoring in all but three of his seasons.

Just entering the prime of his career at 28, Daugherty suffered an ill-fated career-ending herniated lumbar disc in mid-February of the 1993-94 season.

Despite having his outstanding career cut short, the North Carolina native had already broken the afore-mentioned Cavalier records. He remains in the top 10 all-time in points (3rd), field goal percentage (3rd), minutes played (4th), field goals made (5th) and field goals attempted (5th), scoring average (8th), assists (8th) and blocked shots (10th).

As part of the Cavaliers 30th Anniversary in 1999-2000, Daugherty was unanimously named by 32 members of the Northeast Ohio media to the Cavaliers' All-Time Starting Five. He was the only player to garner all 32 votes.

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on March 1, 1997.

Mark Price (No. 25)
Height: 6-0 Weight: 180
Position: Point Guard
Jersey Retired 11/13/99

They say lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place, but for the Cavaliers on draft day in 1986, it did.

Prior to the draft on June 17, Cleveland acquired the top overall pick from Philadelphia in exchange for Roy Hinson and considerations. With the first pick in the 1986 NBA Draft, Cleveland selected center Brad Daugherty.

At the top of the second round, the Dallas Mavericks selected Mark Price with the 25th overall pick. Quickly, the Cavaliers traded their second-round draft pick in 1989 and other considerations with Dallas in exchange for the rights to the 6-foot All-American from Georgia Tech.

Unknowingly then, the Cavaliers acquired two of the greatest players in franchise history that day. Price and Daugherty helped the team turn the corner and join the NBA's elite while becoming the cornerstones of the Cavaliers' franchise.

While Daugherty started as a rookie, Price learned on the bench for a year before unseating John Bagley. Once a starter, Price never looked back.

Widely regarded as one of the best shooters in NBA history, Price and his picture-perfect release guided the Cavaliers to one of their most successful runs in franchise history. With the exception of the 1990-91 season in which he tore his ACL and played only 16 games, the Cavaliers made the playoffs and won at least 42 games every year Price was a starter.

The sweet-shooting point guard was named an All-Star four times (1989, 1992-94) and at the time of his retirement was the only Cavalier to be named to an All-NBA Team more than once (1988-89, 1991-94), including All-NBA First Team in 1992-93.

Price led the NBA in free throw percentage twice (1991-92, '92-93) and won the NBA's Long Distance Shootout in back-to-back years (1993-94).

Not just a shooter, Price ranked in the top 10 in the league in assists in five of his nine seasons as a Cavalier.

For his career, Price ranks first among all Cavaliers in free throw percentage, second in assists and third in three-point field goals made. He also ranks among the top 10 all-time in franchise history in steals (2nd), three-point field goal percentage (3rd), points scored (5th), free throws made (5th), field goals made (6th), field goals attempted (6th), games played (9th), minutes played (8th) and free throws attempted (7th). Price was named to the Cavaliers' All-Time Starting Five by 32 members of the Northeast Ohio media during the Cavaliers 30th Anniversary season. He was also the leading vote-getter on the Cavs All-Time Team, as voted on by the Cleveland fans.

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on November 13, 1999.

Zydrunas Ilgauskas (No. 11)
Height: 7-3 Weight: 260
Position: Center
Jersey Retired: 3/8/14

Aside from his stellar statistics and All-Star appearances, the reason Clevelanders love Zydrunas Ilgauskas is because he shares the same qualities as the city he represented: toughness, endurance, resiliency .

When he was tabbed with the 20th overall pick in the 1996 NBA Draft, Cavalier fans had barely heard of Ilguaskas, who hailed from Kaunas, Lithuania – the birthplace of his idol, Blazers center Arvydas Sabonis .

After missing his first season, undergoing right foot surgery just a few months after being drafted, Big Z played in all 82 games during his "rookie" campaign – one in which he won MVP of the Schick Rookie Challenge at All-Star Weekend and gave Rik Smits and the heavily-favored Pacers all they could handle in the postseason .

But between that season (1997-98) and the 2001-02 campaign, Ilgauskas was limited to just 29 total games, with another pair of foot surgeries in between .

Those injuries and the ensuing rehab might've induced a lesser man to call it a career .But for Ilgauskas, this merely served as a rebirth .

Big Z bounced back to play 62 games in 2001-02 and, the following season, returned to his rookie form – averaging 17 2 points and 7 6 rebounds per game .He notched double-figures in every game but five and was named to his first All-Star Game, joining the East squad in Atlanta .

Over the next seven years with the Cavaliers, Ilgauskas never played less than 64 games in a season – starting 81 games in back-to-back campaigns and, as the team began its ascent in the standings, Z continued to climb through the franchise's all-time record books .

In 2004-05, Big Z had his best season as a pro and, along with his teammate, LeBron James, returned to the All-Star Game .The 7-3 Ilgauskas saw more action than in his first appearance, going 5-for-8 from the floor and 2-of-2 from the stripe for 12 points to go with seven boards and a pair of blocked shots for the East squad .

In his six playoff appearances with the Wine and Gold, Z is tied for fourth in games played (71), third place in offensive rebounds (180), and fourth in minutes (2,017), defensive rebounds (343) and total boards (523) .

Before wrapping up his career in Cleveland following the 2009-10 season, Ilgauskas (10,616) would go on to become one of just four Cavaliers to have topped the 10,000-point mark, joining Austin Carr (10,265), Daugherty (10,389) and LeBron James (23,119) .

One day after breaking the 10,000-point plateau, Big Z swatted four shots against the New Jersey Nets to become the franchise's all-time leader in blocked shots, finishing with 1,269 .

Overall, Z – who ranks in the team's top 10 in 12 major categories – is the Cavaliers' all-time leader in offensive rebounds (2,336) and ranks second in total rebounds (5,904) .But the all-time mark that best exemplifies Ilgauskas might be the one he set on December 2, 2009, when he passed his friend (and then-general manager) Danny Ferry – playing in his 724th game as a Cavalier .

When his career in Cleveland came to an end, Ilgauskas had suited up for 771 games as a Cavalier, more than any player in franchise history .

Not bad for a player whose career almost ended after two seasons.

The Cavaliers retired his jersey on March 8, 2014.

Austin Carr, the late Bobby 'Bingo' Smith and the late Nate Thurmond, three members of The Cleveland Cavaliers' 1975-76 "Miracle of Richfield" team.

Zydrunas Ilgauskas posts up Spurs Tim Duncan during the 2007 NBA Finals, Cleveland's first appearance in the NBA Finals in team history.

CLEVELAND CAVALIERS
WALL OF HONOR

The Wall of Honor program, which debuted during the Cavaliers' 50th season in 2019-20, was created to recognize deserving former members of the franchise and serve as a special, permanent way to honor those who have played such a distinguished, pivotal role in Cavs history.

The Wall of Honor resides prominently in the North Atrium area of the FieldHouse. The large 12'x44' wall features a mosaic of custom designed tiles that represent each honoree. Each new inductee will have two SILVER tiles: one engraved with their name, photo, years with the organization, and their jersey number or role with the team; the other with their name, list of major accomplishments and jersey number/role.

Five individuals who played core roles in the early years of the Cleveland Cavaliers comprised the inaugural 2020 class of the Wall of Honor: Wayne Embry, Bill Fitch, the late John Johnson, Nick Mileti and the late John "Hot Rod" Williams. Four members comprised the 2022 class of honorees: World B. Free, Gordon Gund, Campy Russell and Lenny Wilkens. The newest class of 2024 Wall of Honor inductees included four individuals: Terrell Brandon, Chuck Broski, Jim Chones and Mike Mitchell.

The Wall also include GOLD tiles for the eight legends who have previously had their jerseys retired by the Cavs: Austin Carr, Brad Daugherty, Zydrunas Ilgauskas, Larry Nance Sr., Mark Price, the late Bobby "Bingo" Smith, the late Joe Tait (Cavaliers Hall of Fame radio broadcaster for 39 seasons) and the late Nate Thurmond.

The following are the guidelines for eligibility to be considered for the Cavaliers Wall of Honor:

- Must have been a part of the Cavaliers organization for at least two seasons
- Must be retired from playing or working for the Cavaliers organization for at least five seasons

They must also exhibit two or more of the following traits as hallmarks of their tenure with the organization:

- Strong personal character that elevated the organization and inspired those around them
- Significant community commitment focused on improving the quality of life in and around the City of Cleveland
- Standout individual game performance and a competitive impact that improved both the team and their teammates
- Be reflective of the "All For One. One For All." commitment throughout the organization

BEHIND THE UNIFORM AND LOGO

The Cavaliers enter the 2025-26 campaign looking to build on three straight postseason runs, highlighted by back-to-back Semifinals appearances. With their young core gaining valuable experience and expectations continuing to rise, Cleveland begins the new season with stability on the court and consistency in their look – sticking with the same bold uniform threads for a fourth straight year.

The current era of Cavaliers branding was introduced in the summer of 2022, when the team – led by Creative Director and internationally-renowned contemporary artist Daniel Arsham – unveiled its refined logo set. That rollout featured the popular secondary "V net" logo, a nod to the mid-90s design, alongside the return of reflective metallic gold, a shade first worn in the early '80s and revived again during the 2003-10 era.

That aurelian glow is reflected in all three versions of the Cavaliers uniforms – the Association (white), Icon (wine) and Statement (black) versions – all uniquely designed with seamless, monochromatic layering around the collar, arms, shorts and waistbands.

The Association uniform is accented in wine and gold and shows off the "V net" logo centerpiece on the jersey top and a large, refreshed primary "Cavs C" logo on the shorts.

The Icon uniform features the new "CLEVELAND" wordmark in gold on the chest, with the primary "Cavs C" logo on the left shorts panel.

The Jordan-branded Statement uniform – inspired by the memorable threads donned during the squad's legendary Championship run in 2016 – displays the "Cavs C" logo on a black shell, with the secondary logo along the side paneling of the shorts.

And of course, all three uniforms feature a gold patch on the back center collar with the number "1" positioned inside a silhouette of the Larry O'Brien trophy – an exclusive feature for teams who've won an NBA championship.

Returning for the second straight season is their patch partner – Cleveland-Cliffs, the largest flat-rolled steel producer in North America, expanding an existing multi-year marketing agreement Cleveland-Cliffs is the only steel company to have a jersey patch partnership within the NBA.

This certainly isn't the first time the Cavaliers have undergone a uniform transformation. They've made myriad changes over the years – from minor tweaks to major overhauls.

Dating back to the franchise's inception, the club's colors – "wine and gold" – have become almost analogous to the team's actual name The Cavaliers are the "Wine and Gold" in the same way that Ohio State is the "Scarlet and Grey," the University of Michigan is the "Maize and Blue" or the Oakland Raiders are the "Silver and Black."

But in the 50-plus years of Cavaliers history, the franchise has experimented with burnt orange, royal blue, bright orange, black, purple and pastel blue. And, throughout the squad's history, there have been several notable uniform changes.

The first uniforms featured the feathered underscore of "Cavaliers" on both home and road jerseys Those years also featured the birth of the Cavs iconic logo – a silhouetted figure of a jousting Cavalier, encircled by the words "Cleveland Cavaliers." (The wee swashbuckler has thankfully survived through four decades of change.)

Cleveland's next uniform style – made famous by the "Miracle of Richfield" team – featured gold home duds and "Marquette"-style horizontal white, wine and gold stacked piping along the sides Those uniforms – and that era – were celebrated again by both the 2004-05 and 2015-16 teams.

In 1981, as the final remnants of the Miracle squad faded into the sunset, the Mike Mitchell-era team went with a metallic gold with a pair of horizontal stripes with the word "Cleveland" written above it in block letters.

But in 1983 – with the purchase of the team by Gordon Gund and the organization on the verge of big changes – the Cavaliers made a radical departure from its original colors and identity This came in the form of the burnt orange and royal blue uni's with the word "CAVS" written across the chest. The "V" was designed like a hoop with a ball entering it, which also served as Cleveland's new logo.

The Cavaliers retained the colors – and slight variations on the look – throughout their final, and highly successful, years at the Richfield Coliseum

The burnt orange as the primary road color was replaced by the royal blue road uniforms in 1987 and the "CAVS" logo was replaced with the block "Cleveland" before the 1989 season.

This attire will forever be linked to the Lenny Wilkens era of excellence that featured the likes of Mark Price, Brad Daugherty, Larry Nance and Hot Rod Williams.

When the Cavaliers began playing at then-Gund Arena in the 1994-95 season, there was once again a sea change from the previous look.

From the wine and gold of the '70s to the burnt orange and royal blue of the 80s, the Cavaliers went with pastel blue and black. The home uniforms were white, road black, with a jagged blue splash across the torso and double-lined lettering that said "CAVS" at home and "Cleveland" on the road, both outlined in orange.

The Cavaliers modified this look in 1997, sticking with the color scheme, but losing the incongruous torso splash. Instead, the uniforms featured a more streamlined blue and orange piping along the right side of the shirts and shorts. The futuristic lined letters remained.

But in October of 2002, Gund decided to bring Cavaliers fans back to the future. The new colors were announced on October 9, 2003 – the "new expression of wine and gold" – a crimson-hued wine color and a metallic, almost copper, gold. Dark blue, the secondary color, was a tribute to the Cavalier teams of the 1990s.

Since then, the Cavaliers have returned exclusively to the Wine and Gold – with exceptions for special occasions over the years.

The Wine and Gold have changed their look over years, but their uniforms – and the doctrines that define the franchise – remain the same as the Cavaliers continue to build on their bright future.

NAMING THE CAVALIERS

Can you imagine Evan Mobley throwing down a dunk for the "Cleveland Towers"? How about watching Donovan Mitchell driving through the lane for the "Cleveland Jays" or listening to the sage advice of longtime play-by-play man, Austin Carr – better known as "Mr. Forester"?

Doesn't quite work, does it?

One-half century ago, as part of a contest sponsored by the Plain Dealer, these were three of the five finalists in the search for Cleveland's first professional basketball team's new name.

But none of those three nicknames, nor the fourth – ("Presidents") – had the combination of class and courage of the handle that eventually became the name of Nick Mileti's new basketball franchise – the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Back in May of 1970, that masculine moniker was provided by a then-29-year-old district manager named Jerry Tomko, who wrote an essay which, in part, read: "The name Cleveland Cavaliers represents a group of daring fearless men, whose life's pact was never surrender, no matter what the odds."

(Little did he know that his words would also soon be lyrics in the Wine and Gold's now-iconic fight song from the same era – "Come On, Cavs." The tune, penned by local radio personality Larry Morrow famously exclaims: "We'll never surrender/No matter what the odds.")

After his retirement and relocation to San Diego, Tomko – the father of former major league pitcher, Brett Tomko – kept the winning essay from the PD in a safe box at his home.

"Actually I wrote it in about 20 minutes," laughed Tomko. "I went to pick my wife (Donna) up and I heard about the contest on the radio. There was a napkin and a pen sitting in the car and I wrote it. Then, when I picked my wife up, I asked her to proofread it."

Tomko said he felt like "Cavaliers" had a chance when he heard the other four finalists.

"They picked five names and they had a vote on it. When the five names appeared – the other four didn't sound that good. The odds seemed to be getting better, but it wasn't a sure thing."

Nearly 6,000 fans voted on the team's new name, and over a third preferred the alliterative "Cleveland Cavaliers" – who would soon be tipping off their inaugural campaign at the Cleveland Arena.

After being selected as the winner, Tomko received a pair of season tickets for the Cavs maiden voyage in 1970, but not the autographed basketball he was promised by Mileti at the time.

But the current Cavaliers kept the organization's original word – sending Tomko an autographed basketball in 2010, along with a commemorative plaque.

Now, over five decades later, the Cleveland Cavaliers are one of the most respected and recognized franchises in sports.

Over those years, they've represented the gallant, swashbuckling image envisioned by Tomko quite well. And although the Eastlake native moved to a place 2,400 miles and two time zones away – (not to mention living in Laker Country) – he remained a fan of the club whose name he coined.

"I'm not one of those jump-off-the-bandwagon, who's-in-first-place type of guys," said Tomko.

The Wine and Gold have gone on to great things – including taking the 2016 NBA title in epic fashion.

And now, after more than a half-century of existence, the franchise has changed uniforms, buildings, owners, players and coaches, two things haven't changed from the day Jerry Tomko wrote an essay on a napkin: They're still the Cleveland Cavaliers and they still don't surrender, no matter what the odds.

This year's event furthered the Gilbert family's mission to fund research, raise awareness and build community support for those affected by NF.

The Cavaliers welcomed families living with NF and community supporters to "Gilly's," the new Rocket Arena space named in Nick's honor, reinforcing a sense of support and shared purpose. All proceeds from the 50/50 raffle were matched by the Gilbert Family Foundation and donated to NF Forward, the nonprofit founded by the Gilbert family to advance critical NF research, maximizing the impact toward eradicating NF.

Nick's signature bow tie, now an annual team symbol of hope and solidarity, was prominently displayed throughout the night as a reminder of the ongoing fight against NF and the millions affected worldwide. Every fan received a Nick Gilbert bobblehead capturing his iconic 2011 NBA Draft moment, and exclusive Bow Tie Night merchandise was sold to benefit NF Forward.

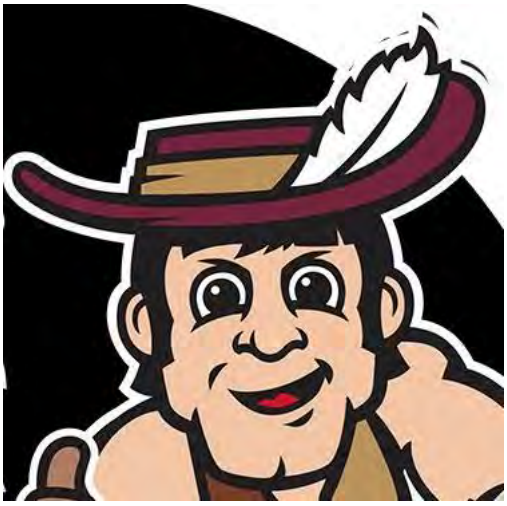
Moondog

Passionate. Loyal. Paper-Trained.

Moondog isn't just part of the Cavaliers, he's part of Cleveland's DNA. This is the city that gave the world Rock & Roll, a term coined by legendary DJ Alan Freed. He called himself the original "Moondog," rallying his fans as "Moondoggers."

Since debuting in 2003, our Moondog has carried that same spirit; wildly fun, fiercely loyal, and unapologetically Cleveland. Like Freed, he's bold, innovative, and just the right amount of unpredictable... which might explain why he's a ten-time NBA All-Star.

Unleash Moondog at your next event, order a custom video shoutout, dive into our photo archives, or book a VIP experience at www.papertrained.com.



Sir C.C.

Our four-time All Star C.C. can be seen at every Cavaliers home game cheering on our team and energizing the fans, making sure that everyone's trip to Rocket Arena is one they will never forget! C.C. shares his love for Cavaliers basketball too by visiting Cavaliers Academy basketball camps, Junior Cavs basketball leagues, Cavs United outings, and many more events all over Northeast Ohio.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Cleveland Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team welcomes you to the 2025-26 NBA season. It is our goal to provide a professional and productive working environment. To assist in your coverage of the Cavaliers, please note the following:

Media access: All Cavaliers media availability – including practice, shootaround, pregame and postgame activities with players and coaches – will only be conducted with in-person media in attendance. Zoom will only be used if circumstances dictate. The Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team will distribute via email daily availability times for all practice, shootaround and pregame media availability sessions.

In accordance with the NBA, media will be credentialed for games under the same process as in previous seasons, including a Tier 1 level for qualifying outlets. Priority will be given to outlets based on established NBA Media Guidelines. Tier 1 credentials will grant access to pre- and post-game locker room media availabilities at Rocket Arena. These credentials will be limited, and available to media outlets that regularly cover the team either by traveling consistently (at least 50 percent of road games) or attending most of a team's games and practices (at least 50 percent of both games and practices). Additionally, national media who cover the league on a consistent basis and select international media and broadcast partners will be eligible for Tier 1 credentials.

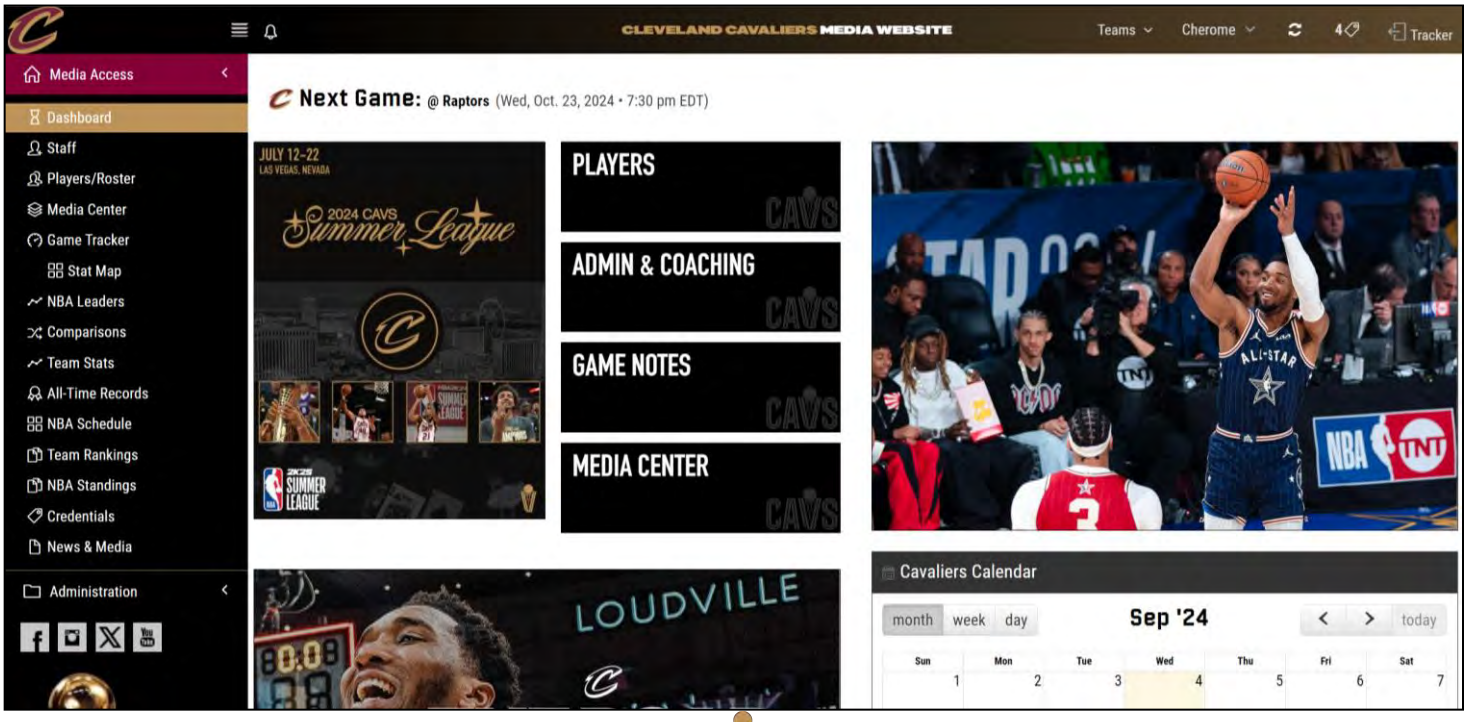
In order to qualify for Tier 1, media outlets must also create original news content and have a standard editorial process in place to govern credentialed reporters. Media who do not fit the Tier 1 requirements will be given access to all other media areas, including the Fred McLeod TV Studio and Media Workroom and the visiting team interview room located across from the visiting team locker room (Green Room). Seating in the Fred McLeod TV Studio and Media Workroom is limited and will be provided on a priority basis.

Credentials will also feature three access levels:

- Locker Room (L) – Allows only approved Tier 1 credential holders to access the Cavaliers and visiting team's locker rooms during pre and postgame media availability at Rocket Arena. Priority will be given to outlets based on established NBA Media Guidelines. As such, season credentials with locker room access will be limited.
- Court (C) - Allows approved credential holder to access the baseline areas during pregame operational times at Rocket Arena (media will not have court access 30 minutes prior to tip-off).
- Back of House (B) – Allows approved credential holder access to the event level of Rocket Arena, including the Fred McLeod TV Studio and Media Workroom, and the visiting team interview room located across from the visiting team locker room (Green Room).

The Cavaliers are currently accepting requests for full season and single game credentials for the 2025-26 season. Requests can be made on HoopsOMG.com. Approved holders of credentials must at all times adhere to any alterations to the Health and Safety Protocols as well as the zoning rules established by the Cavaliers and the NBA.

Cavaliers Media Website: To assist with your coverage throughout the 2025-26 season, the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team has an interactive Cavaliers Media Website on https://www.HoopsOMG.com (select the Cleveland Cavaliers logo). This site will virtually house pertinent media materials including the Cavaliers Media Guide, game notes, current and historical statistical data, live game tracker and player updates, Cavaliers PR (@CavsNotes) & team (@cavs) "X" feeds, credential request forms and more. Previously printed materials such as game notes, out-of-town scores, recaps and NBA rankings will no longer be available in the media workroom, as all information can now be found on the Cavaliers Media Website. If you do not have an account already established and need access, please email CavaliersPR@cavs.com for login information.



Credentials: You must have a Cavaliers credential (full season or single-game) to be admitted to Rocket Arena, and your credential must be visibly worn at all times. Credentials should be requested through the Cavaliers media website at HoopsOMG.com.

Your credential does not guarantee a seat. Please contact the Basketball Communications Team no later than 48 hours before a game to reserve a seat in the press seating areas. Single-game credentials can be picked up at the media entrance, located on the east side of Rocket Arena (off of East 6th street, adjacent to the Cavaliers Team Shop and facing the Gateway East parking garage). Photo ID is required to obtain your credential.

Season and single-game credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from Rocket Arena and the forfeiture of the credential. No autographs are allowed during media access periods.

Media members who are approved for credentials must adhere to any alterations to the Health and Safety Protocols as well as the zoning rules established by the Cavaliers and the NBA.

Please note that single-game credentials may be limited due to the available media workspace. A member of the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team will respond and indicate if a spot is available for the game requested.

Media Entrance: All media members must enter Rocket Arena through the media entrance, which is located on the east side of the arena (across from Gateway East Garage) and opens two and a half hours prior to game time. If you are coming out of the Gateway East parking garage, crossing East 6th Street, you will see the Cavaliers Team Shop. The media gate is located just to the left (south) of the Team Shop. Several available options for parking are in close proximity to Rocket Arena.

Fred McLeod TV Studio & Media Workroom: All media members will have access to the Fred McLeod TV Studio and Media Workroom. Seating will be assigned and reserved within this area as space permits, and all seats in the workroom will be equipped with electrical power and RocketArenaWiFi accessibility.

Media will be able to use the designated Media Elevator in the Three-Bank Elevator Lobby (located directly behind the media section, M104) on the main concourse to travel to and from the media section and Fred McLeod TV Studio and Media Workroom.

Media members who are not given a seat in the Media Workroom will be able to work from their seat in Section M104.

Seating: There will be reserved media seats located in Section M104 and will be assigned by the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team. All seats will be equipped with electrical power and access to RocketArenaWiFi.

TV and Radio: Visiting television broadcast positions will be located in Section C121, which is accessible from Street Level portals 21 and 27, and Huntington Club Level portal 47. Broadcasters will also be provided a meal inside of Club Suite 34 (on Huntington Club Level), which they can also utilize for restroom, make up and pregame prep, adjacent to the visitors' bench. Radio broadcast positions will be in the "Joe Tait Perch" (radio booth) in Section C107. If statisticians are desired, please make arrangements with the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team at least 24 hours before game time. All requests for pregame or postgame interviews should be directed to the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team.

Photographers: Still photographers will be able to shoot from the baseline locations this season and will be assigned a floor spot. Photographers are asked to keep off the side courts and to be considerate of the ticket holders seated directly behind them. Also, photographers are asked to wear rubber-soled shoes to protect the basketball floor and must have rubber lens shades for their cameras. All photographers that are assigned a floor photo lane will be required to wear a photo vest distributed by the Basketball Communications team and face masks. Floor positions will be given to outlets based on priority as designated by the NBA. Additional elevated photo space will be made available on a case-by-case basis or as space allows.

Parking: Full-season parking passes via SeatGeek will be distributed by the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team on a limited basis. For those media members who receive full season parking privileges, the media parking area will be located in the Gateway East Garage.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team at CavaliersPR@cavs.com.

FRED MCLEOD TV STUDIO & MEDIA WORKROOM

The Cavaliers organization named the combined television studio and media workroom space at Rocket Arena the "Fred McLeod TV Studio & Media Workroom" on September 18, 2019 in honor of the team's beloved 14-year play-by-play television announcer, who passed away unexpectedly on September 9, 2019. Given the indelible impact and legacy of Fred McLeod, and how he touched so many across the media and fan community, as well as the team he loved, the Fred McLeod TV Studio & Media Workroom serves as a lasting tribute to someone that was universally admired, respected and appreciated as a fellow media member and willing mentor to a countless number across the industry.

Before and after every Cavaliers home game, home and visiting team media members gather in the television studio and media workroom space on the event level of Rocket Arena to hear from, and interview, the Cavaliers head coach. The space is also used for many other media events and reporting elements throughout the year by attending media covering games and events for newspapers, magazines, television, radio, websites and other digital platforms, as they write and file their respective stories and coverage inside the walls of this important area.

A Strongsville, Ohio native, Fred served as the television voice of the Cavs since joining the team and FOX Sports Ohio in 2006. His NBA broadcasting career spanned 36 seasons, having spent 22 seasons with the Detroit Pistons, in addition to 14 overall with the Cavs (1979- 80; 2006-19). The multi-regional Emmy Award winner called more than 1,000 games during his time with the Wine and Gold. His diverse and extensive sports broadcasting career also included time in the NFL (Detroit Lions) and MLB (Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers), as well as local television sports reporting and anchoring in multiple cities, including Cleveland and Detroit.

Fred was one of the most accomplished and respected announcers in the NBA and all of sports and was known for his love, passion and enthusiasm for his hometown Cavs and Cleveland. He was friendly and welcoming to all his fellow media colleagues, regardless of experience or outlet they represented, including up-and-comers who sought advice from him and appreciated his willingness to spend time supporting them. Fred made a lasting impression, so it is fitting that he will have this permanent space dedicated to his memory.

In connection with the Rocket Arena transformation project, the state-of-the-art TV studio and media workroom space was recently re-designed, expanded and updated for optimal use, media support, technology and efficiency.

John Michael enters his seventh year as the Cavaliers' Television Play-By-Play Broadcaster after spending the previous eight seasons as the team's Radio Play-By-Play Broadcaster.

Michael's tenure with the Cavaliers has been nothing short of a smashing success, as this year John was honored with his four straight individual Emmy Award by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Lower Great Lakes Chapter, sweeping the prestigious category of Top Play-By-Play Broadcaster / Analyst during that stretch. Along with his four individual Emmy Awards, John has also earned four team Emmy Awards in the Outstanding Live Sporting Event category during this tremendous run.
In summer 2019, Michael was inducted into Western Pennsylvania's Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame. John's fellow inductees include the NBA's Pete Maravich and Brad Davis, the NFL's Joe Namath, Mike Ditka, Tony Dorsett, Ty Law, and Darrelle Revis, as well as MLB skipper Terry Francona and his late father, Tito.

In 2015, Michael represented the Cavaliers' organization by moderating the esteemed Cuyahoga Community College Presidential Luncheon alongside Magic Johnson. In addition, John has made numerous SportsCenter appearances and continues to be featured on various national television networks analyzing the NBA.

Michael has nearly two decades of professional sports play-by-play experience. He previously worked with the NHL's Columbus Blue Jackets on Bally Sports Ohio and was also the inaugural play-by-play "Voice of the Lake Erie Monsters" in Cleveland. Earlier in his career, Michael gained valuable play-by-play experience with the MSA Sports Network in Pennsylvania, hosting sports talk shows and calling a variety of sports, including baseball, football, hockey, basketball, and soccer.

Prior to heading to Cleveland, Michael spent two seasons as the radio voice of the AHL's Springfield Falcons and two seasons with the ECHL's Johnstown Chiefs. Following his final campaign with the Chiefs, the Aliquippa, Pennsylvania native was named the 2005 ECHL Broadcaster of the Year. The honor highlighted a springboard season for Michael during which he had been chosen to broadcast the 2005 ECHL All-Star Game for NHL Radio.

Michael has also served as a radio broadcaster for baseball's Hagerstown Suns, a then-minor league affiliate of the San Francisco Giants. Additionally, he has taught as an Adjunct Professor of Broadcasting at Springfield College in Massachusetts, where the game of basketball was invented, and in the city that the Basketball Hall of Fame calls home.

Prior to embarking on his broadcasting career, Michael earned a law degree, an MBA degree, and a mechanical engineering degree from the University of Notre Dame, all with cum laude honors, in an eight-year span. Following graduation from law school, he joined the distinguished Pittsburgh law firm of Kirkpatrick & Lockhart (now K&L Gates). There, he practiced law full time as a trial attorney specializing in construction law for over four years before launching his broadcasting career.

Brad Daugherty continues his duties as a TV analyst, a role he has coveted since 2020. He will join John Michael for roughly 70 games throughout the 2025-26 regular season.

Daugherty also played for the Cleveland Cavaliers for eight NBA seasons and was taken as the first overall pick by Cleveland in the 1986 NBA draft out of the University of North Carolina. A 1986–87 All-Rookie team selection, Daugherty averaged nineteen points and ten rebounds per game over his NBA career and retired as the Cavaliers all-time leading scorer (10,389 points) and rebounder (5,227). Daugherty's all time-leading scorer record stood until March 21, 2008, when LeBron James broke the point record against the Toronto Raptors. His leading rebounder record stood until December 9, 2008, when Zydrunas Ilgauskas broke the rebound record, again against the Raptors.

He played in 41 postseason games and led the Cavaliers as far as the Eastern Conference Finals in 1992. Daugherty was a five-time All-Star (1988, 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993). As part of the Cavaliers' 30th anniversary in 1999–2000, Daugherty was a unanimous selection to the All-Time Cleveland Cavaliers team.

Daugherty announced his retirement after the 1995–96 season. His #43 jersey, a number he picked as a tribute to NASCAR legend Richard Petty who fueled his interest in racing, was retired by the Cavaliers on March 1, 1997. In 2019, Daugherty was inducted to the Cavaliers Wall of Honor for individuals who played a critical role in shaping the franchise's history.

Daugherty is part-owner of Hyak Racing alongside Gordon Smith. The five-time NBA All-Star also joined NBC Sports as an analyst for pre-race and post-race NASCAR Cup Series coverage. A fixture not only on television, Daugherty has also regularly hosted shows on SiriusXM NASCAR Radio and SiriusXM NBA Radio.

In 1985, Daugherty tried his hand at owning a Late Model race team with his close friend and driver Robert Pressley. They won races and championships and climbed the ladder to the NASCAR Xfinity Series where they won their first race in the division during 1989. Daugherty also co-owned a NASCAR Truck Series team before partnering with JTG Daugherty Racing and progressing to the pinnacle of the sport.

After years of hard work in the NASCAR Cup Series, Daugherty's ownership dreams were finally realized when his team made the NASCAR Cup Series coveted 10-race Chase for the championship with a huge victory at Watkins Glen International in August 2014. That day, Daugherty was on air talent for the race broadcast and there was no way to control his excitement on air. He began jumping up and down, with a huge grin as he hugged fellow analyst Rusty Wallace and then he took off for Victory Lane. Instead of hoisting the trophy, he hoisted his driver (AJ Allmendinger) at the time off the ground as a big celebration got underway.

On February 19th, 2023, the five-time NBA All-Star made history by becoming the first Black principal NASCAR team owner to win the Daytona 500 when driver Ricky Stenhouse Jr. won the storied race in double overtime.

Today, the Black Mountain, NC-native continues his leadership role for JTG Daugherty Racing and his affiliation with BAM (Brand Activation Maximizer) in addition to his role as an NBC analyst for NASCAR. When he's not at the racetrack or on air, he's also has duties as the Chairman of the Cleveland Cavaliers Team Board and the NASCAR Diversity Board.

Serena Winters enters her fifth season as the sideline reporter for Cavaliers broadcasts, having joined the team in January 2022. Before making the move to Cleveland, she spent two seasons with the Philadelphia 76ers as their sideline reporter. While in Philadelphia, Serena also stepped in as a play-by-play announcer and game analyst, contributed written features, hosted studio shows, and filled in on Phillies broadcasts.

With over a decade of experience covering the NBA, she's had the opportunity to host a daily primetime sports and culture talk show for NBC regional networks and anchored a daily NBA podcast.

Earlier in her career, she spent six seasons covering the Los Angeles Lakers, both as an on-air analyst and host for the Lakers' TV network and digitally for LakersNation.com.

Serena got her start in Santa Barbara, anchoring sports updates for the local radio station and calling games as both a play-by-play and color commentator for the UC Santa Barbara men's and women's basketball teams. She is a proud Gaucho, graduating Magna Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree from the University of California, Santa Barbara.

"Mr. Cavalier" Austin Carr is an 8-time Emmy Award winner and begins his 28th season as a TV contributor and ambassador for the Cleveland Cavaliers. Catch him primarily on the Cavaliers Live Pre and Postgame show alongside Cayleigh Griffin. Carr will also join play-by-play broadcaster John Michael to provide insight and analysis during several Cavs games this season.

After a standout career with the Cleveland Cavaliers from 1971-80, Carr rejoined the team in the front office in June 1991 as the Director of Community and Business Development. He was responsible for generating new business from Northeast Ohio corporations with a particular focus on smaller companies and minority organizations. Beginning in 1997, Carr became the full-time color analyst for the team's telecasts on WUAB and the Cavaliers Television Network.

Carr played the first nine of 10 seasons in the NBA with Cleveland before stints with Washington and Dallas. He ranks second among the Cavaliers' all-time leaders in field goals made (4,272) and field goals attempted (9,480). Carr is fourth on the Cavaliers' all-time list in scoring (10,265), sixth in games played (635) and sixth in minutes played (19,003).

The 2021-22 NBA season marked the 50th anniversary since Carr put on a Wine & Gold uniform. He was the first player chosen in the 1971 NBA Draft following a brilliant college career at Notre Dame, where he averaged a school-record 34.6 points per game and was a two-time All-American. The 1971 National Player of the Year currently holds the record for most points in an NCAA tournament game (61), NCAA tournament points per game average (41.3) and was elected to the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame class of 2007. After being inducted into the Irish's Ring of Honor, the lower concourse of the Notre Dame's Purcell Pavilion was renamed the Austin Carr Concourse in 2011.

Carr was named to the NBA All-Rookie Team in 1972 and later represented Cleveland in the 1974 NBA All-Star Game. He was further honored when his number (34) was retired by the Cavaliers on January 3, 1981. In addition, Carr was selected to the Cavaliers' All-Time Starting Five as voted on by 32 members of the media in Northeast Ohio and the Cavaliers' All-Time Team as selected by the fans. The All-Time Starting Five and All-Time Team were selected in conjunction with the Cavaliers 30th Anniversary season of 1999-2000.

Always active in community affairs, Carr won the Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award after the 1979-80 season, an award which recognizes an NBA player or coach who makes substantial contributions to his community. He continues his charitable activities with the Alzheimer's Association of Cleveland, the March of Dimes and the Center for Prevention of Domestic Violence. He is a board member of Y.O.U. (Youth Opportunity Unlimited) and hosts a golf tournament to assist fundraising efforts for the organization, in addition to making numerous speaking engagements to youth groups. Carr is also a regular contributor to Cavs HQ, making numerous public appearances where he talks with Cavs fans all over the community.

Recently Carr celebrated 40 years of service as a member of the Cavaliers and is a very proud ambassador of the organization. A single-digit handicap golfer, Carr is the proud parent of Jason and Ashley, and grandfather to Austin, Aubre and Alexavier.

Cayleigh Griffin enters her fourth season as the Pre and Post-Game Host of Cavaliers Live. She also works as a sideline reporter and host for Minnesota Timberwolves broadcasts on FanDuel Sports Network. Additionally, Griffin serves as a host and reporter for the Cleveland Guardians in the NBA offseason.

Griffin spent three seasons in Houston as the courtside reporter for the Houston Rockets and host/reporter for the Houston Astros. She also spent time with the San Antonio Spurs and BIG East Conference.

Cayleigh is a native of Stamford, CT and graduated from Providence College with a Bachelor of Arts in Humanities, and a Minor in Film. She and her husband reside in Cleveland.

Iman Shumpert enters his first season on the Cleveland Cavaliers broadcast team, where he will serve as a Pre and Post-Game Analyst on Cavaliers Live. Known as one of the most versatile perimeter defenders of his era and a dynamic personality off the court, Shumpert brings championship experience and media savvy to the Cavs' broadcast booth.

Shumpert played 10 seasons in the NBA after being selected 17th overall in the first round of the 2011 NBA Draft by the New York Knicks, earning NBA All-Rookie First Team honors in 2012 following a standout four-year career at Georgia Tech. His most memorable years came in Cleveland, where he played from 2015–2018 during the peak of the Cavaliers' championship era. Shumpert was a key contributor on three NBA Finals teams, including the 2015–16 squad that delivered the first NBA title in franchise history, famously coming back from a 3–1 deficit against the Golden State Warriors.

Following his playing career, Shumpert transitioned seamlessly into media and entertainment. Most recently, during the 2025 NBA Playoffs, he served as an analyst for ESPN's "HoopStreams" and appeared on "Inside the NBA," offering insight informed by his decade on the court. He was also the former host of the Iman Amongst Men podcast with his brother Ahrii. Outside of basketball, in addition to being a father of two, Shumpert has acted in episodes of Showtime's The Chi and BET's Twenties while also being a rapper. He further showcased his range as a performer by winning Season 30 of Dancing with the Stars, competing alongside professional partner Daniella Karagach to become the first former NBA player to capture the mirrorball trophy.

With his championship background, media experience, and entertainer's charisma, Shumpert now returns to the Cavaliers family in a new role—bringing his voice, knowledge, and perspective to Cleveland fans on FanDuel TV broadcasts throughout the season.

Tim Alcorn begins his 7th season as the Cavaliers audio play-by-play broadcaster on the Cavaliers AudioVerse after originally joining the team in September 2019. He conducts the Cavaliers broadcasts alongside Jim Chones, who is returning as the color analyst for his 16th season in the Cavaliers audio booth. Alcorn occasionally fills in on the Guardians Radio Network and does play-by-play for the OHSSA State Final 4 Baseball Tournament annually.

Before joining the Cavaliers, Alcorn spent the previous 27 years at AM930 WEOL in Lorain/Elyria, where he was the lead sports voice, sports director, and station manager. He has been a sportscaster in the Northeast Ohio area since 1985, beginning his radio career at WOBL in Oberlin after graduating from Kent State University, and later joining AM930 WEOL in 1992.

During his time at WEOL, Alcorn was the host of “Countdown at The Q” and “From the Dugout,” live on-site pregame shows before home Cavs and Indians games, respectively. He was additionally the play-by-play announcer for thousands of local high school football, basketball, baseball, and softball games, and hosted multiple programs promoting high school athletics.

Alcorn has been honored with several Hall of Fame inductions over his career. He has also been a recipient of the Lorain County Athletic Administrators Citizenship Award and the OHSAA Northeast District Sportsmanship, Ethics and Integrity Award, and is a three-time winner of the Ohio Associated Press “Best Sports Broadcaster” award.
